Foreword

In keeping with the current movie and television productions, we have tried to show the relationship between them and our school life. Therefore, on the following pages, we will try to present our story, "The Eastside Story."

We, the 1962 Log staff, hope that this book will be one of your most precious possessions and that when you look back over the pages, you will remember once again the wonderful times you had at E. J. H. S.

And now, on with the show.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Conducting a faculty meeting is Superintendent
John Shevrovich.

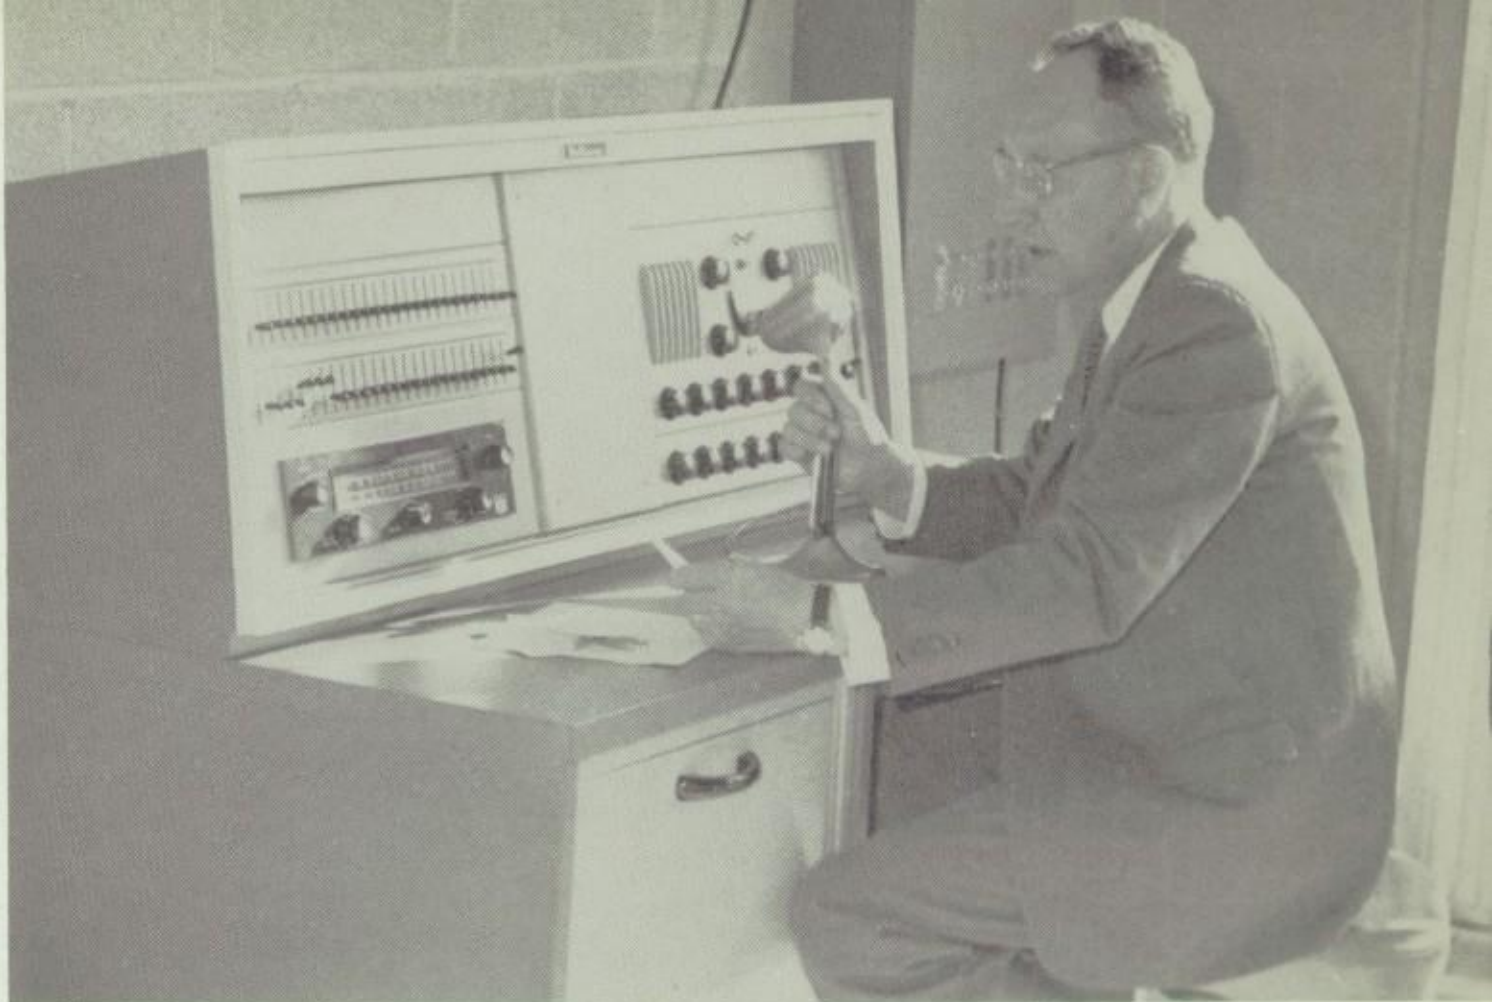

Here Mrs. Ethel Waranowski answers one of the many calls that come into the superintendent's office.

Jerry Ann Schwartz counts cafeteria money which is one of her regular duties as assistant to the secretary.

Executive Suite

Making the regular morning announcements is Principal Eugene Mathews.

"Taking telephone messages is just one of the many duties to be performed during a typical day in the principal's office," says secretary, Mrs. Ilene Crabtree.

Office assistants Pat Baker, Delores Stelter, Sharleen Litteral, and Sharon Straub demonstrate some of their regular office duties.

In Appreciation

We, the Senior Class of 1962, in appreciation for the hard work and unselfish devotion she spent in guiding and counseling us, take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Zelpha Hauer, our sponsor.

The Miracle Worker

Mrs. Hauer takes time out in her fourth-hour Chemistry class.

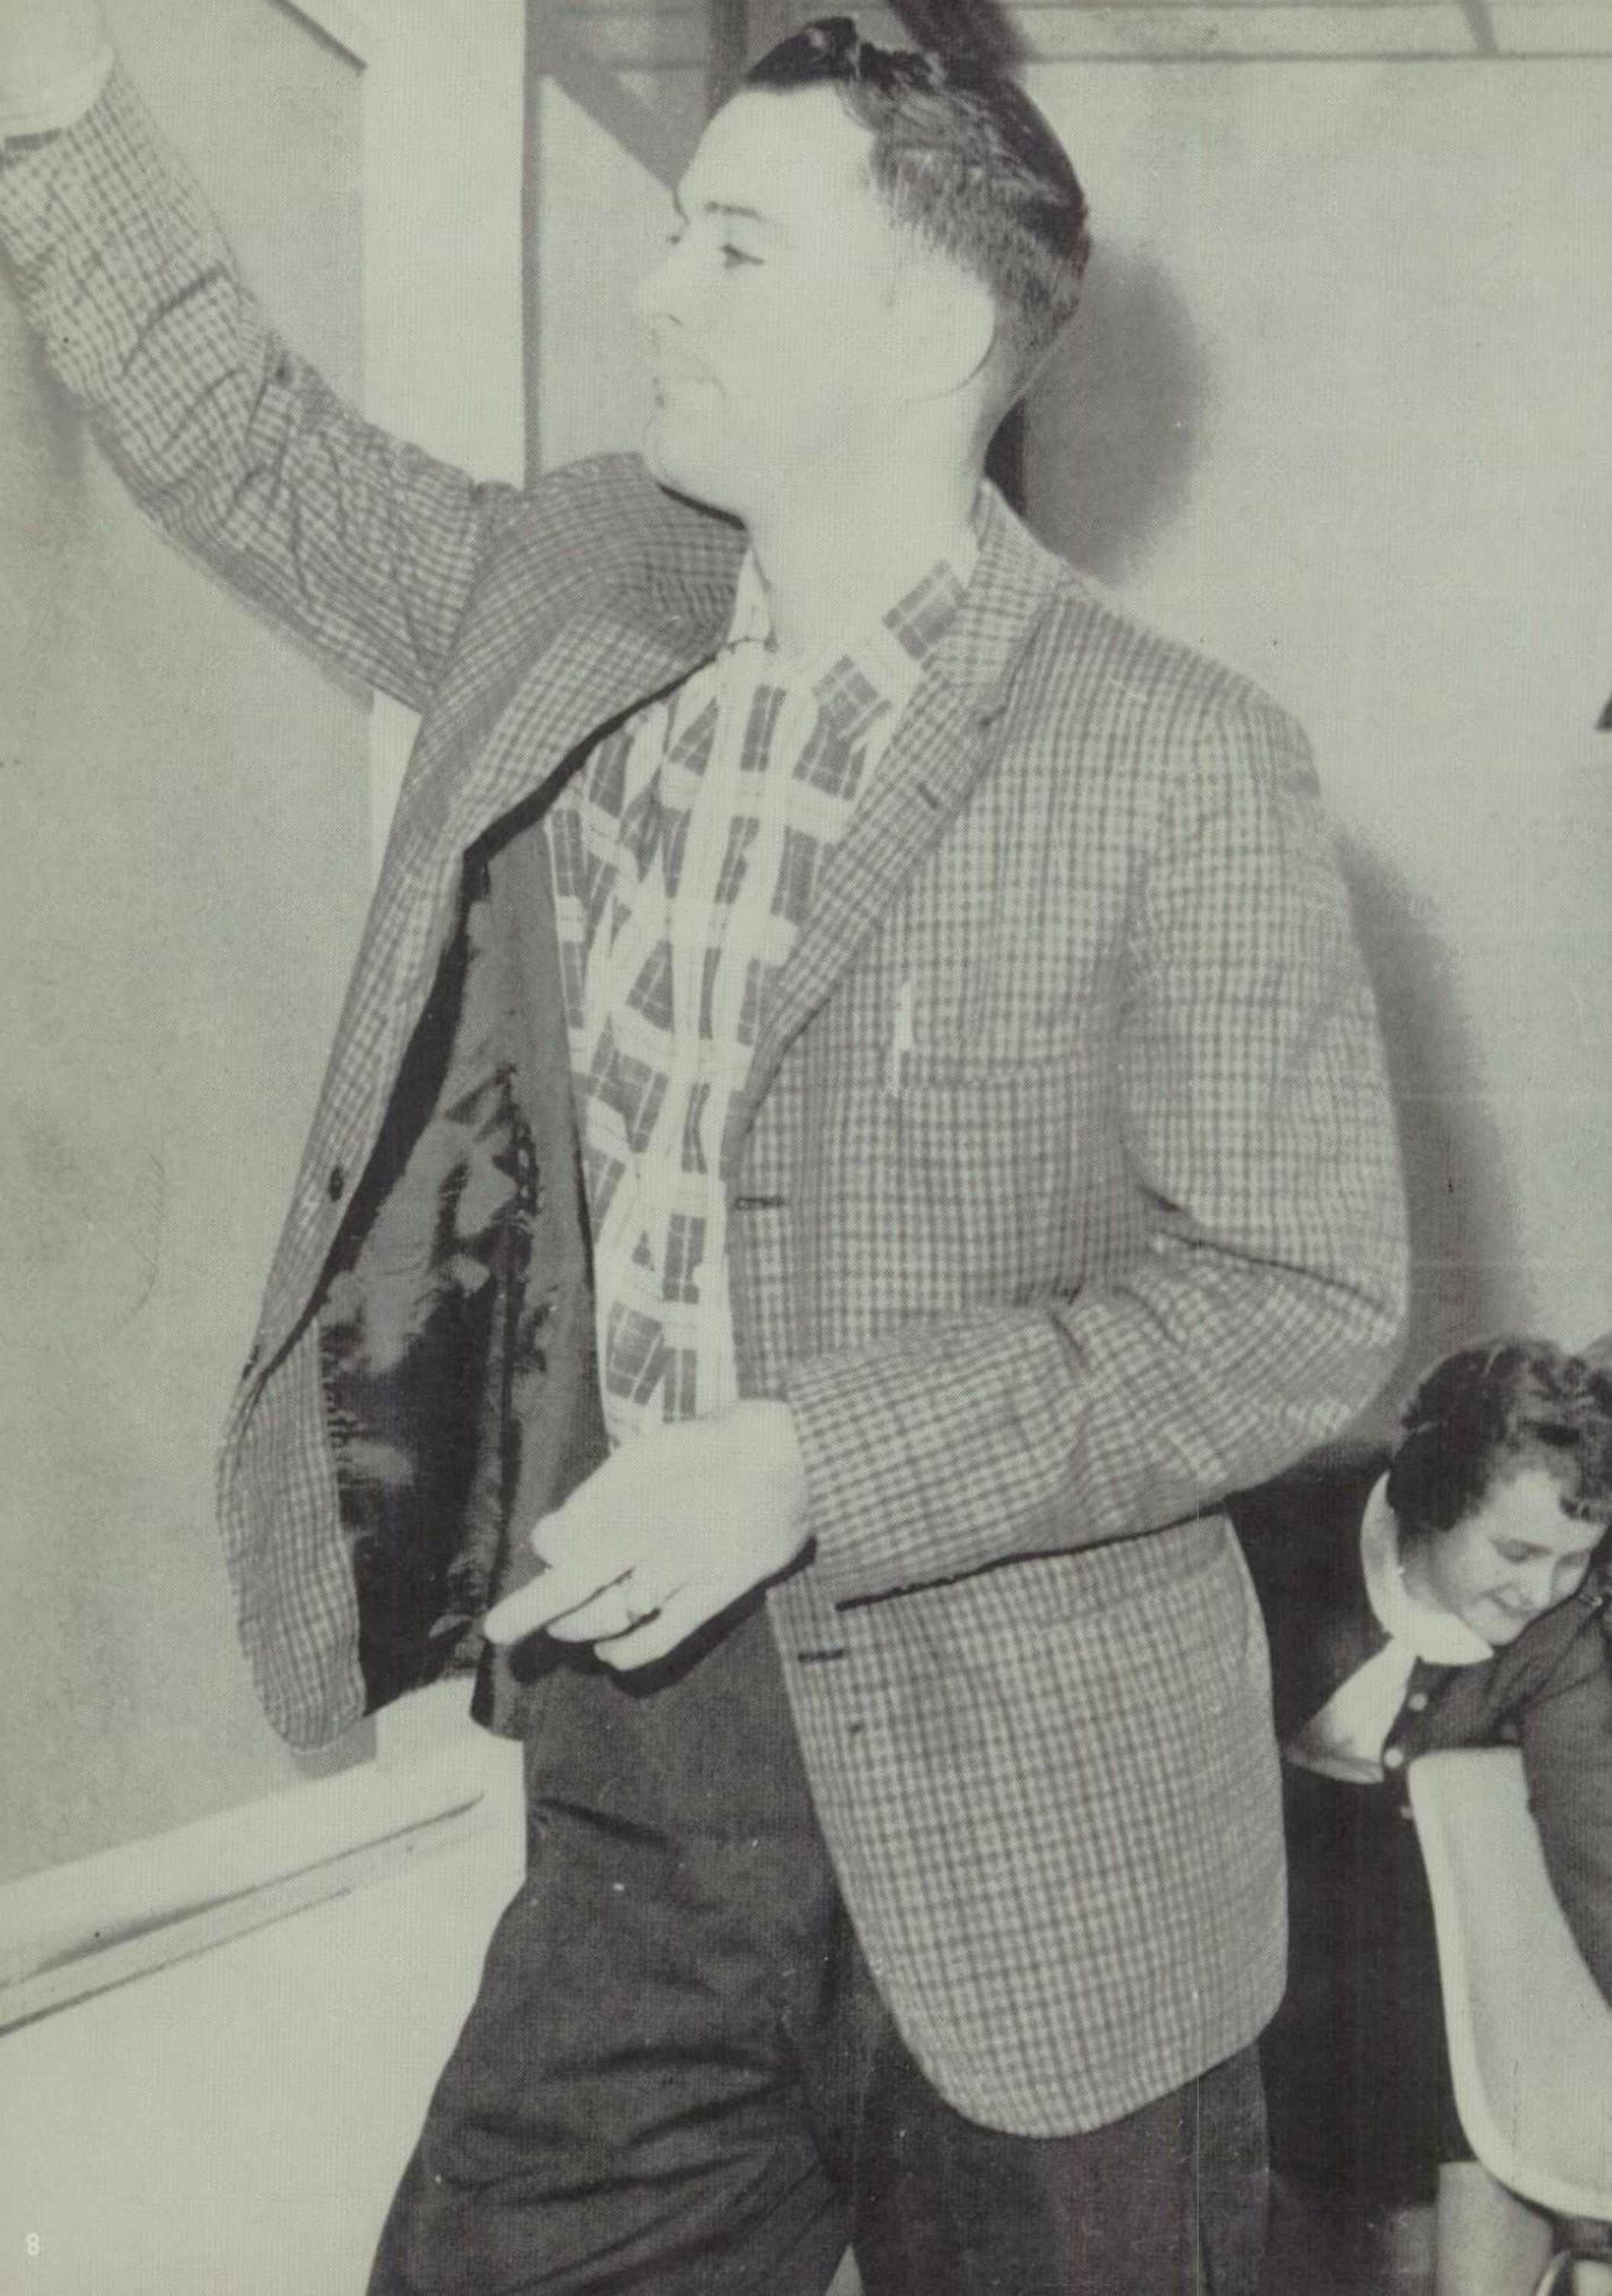

Mrs. Zelpha Hauer is considered a "miracle worker" in many ways. Although her main capacity is in the field of counseling, she assumes many other responsibilities.

Mrs. Hauer solves school and personal problems, initiates and organizes class projects, and counsels students into colleges and future vocations. In addition, she is a classroom teacher.

Getting ready for graduation is a full-time job.

"Homecoming Queen for 1961."

The 1961 homecoming queen was crowned at half time of the Hanover-Horton-East Jackson football game October 13, 1961. Jerry Ann Schwartz was elected by popular vote of the student body.

This honor came as no surprise to those who knew Jerry, for they recognized immediately her friendly personality, natural beauty, even temperament, and sincere interest in both academic and nonacademic programs.

Jerry sums up this experience as "my greatest thrill."

Time for Glory

Coach Ray Eggleston has contributed much to East Jackson since he came here in 1957 as head football coach.

Mr. Eggleston, himself a graduate of E. J., attended Michigan State University. Upon his graduation he returned to teach at East Jackson.

During that time, Coach Eggleston has produced many fine teams for each of the five football seasons. With his hard work and encouraging persistence, he helped E. J. earn favorable records.

"Although I am leaving the coaching staff, I plan to continue being a member of the E. J. faculty," commented Mr. Eggleston.

In five years as head basketball coach, only Dave Fultz's 1958-59 Trojans compiled a better season record than this year's team. That team finished with a 19-2 season record and won the district conference and regional championships.

The Trojans ended the 1961-62 season by copping second place in the Cascade Conference with 12 wins and 3 losses and an overall record of 13-4.

The highlight of this season came on February 2, 1962, as E. J. upset undefeated Western and put a deadlock on first place.

Dave Middlebrook led the scoring with 296 points, and also, won honorable mention on Class C All-State team.

The Library Club has rendered many services throughout the year not only to the students of the school but to those in other countries as well. They have collected books for the people of Africa and also had an assembly featuring a group from different parts of Africa telling of their need for more books. They have also substituted books for those that have been lost and those that were not returned.

The African assembly was one of the projects of the Library Club.

Thoughts for the Day

Although the membership in the Bible Club has been quite small throughout the year, it has continued to go on. Those attending the meetings are confident that attendance will grow in the future. The main purpose of the club is to create a greater understanding of the Lord and the faith we should have in Him.

The members of the Bible Club discuss a verse from the Bible which is one of their regular meeting procedures.

"The Sound"

Mr. Schiferli has been band director at East Jackson High School for the last six years.

During this time he has worked to make our band one of the finest in the state.

*Jackson Ring With

This year the highest Band awards went to Ron Straight. Ron won the John Philip Sousa award which is given each year to the outstanding band member.

He also was presented with the Music award which is awarded to the best musician in the band.

Leon Hudson has taken on the role of drum major for the last two years. Since his parade Leon learned what every good drum major knows, "not to forget his baton."

Leon plans to attend Jackson Junior College where he will study to be a X-ray technician.

During the past year the band has performed at all home football and basketball games. Besides their usual concerts they played at the University of Michigan Band day, a Detroit Lions football game, and marched in the State Fair Parade. A few people had a chance to play with the Cascades Conference Band and three of our best musicians played in the Michigan All Star Band. They sent six groups to the Solo Ensemble contest. This year the band received a division two rating at the Michigan Band and Orchestra Festival.

To become a member, boys must play a varsity sport, through a period of initiation called "Hell" week, and then the pledges are voted on by the members for approval.

Officers of the club are Chuck Hoover, president; Glen Stuard, secretary; and Dave Loomis, treasurer. The club is sponsored by coaches Dave Fultz and Ray Eggleston.

The Varsity Club sponsored two dances during the year which followed home games.
